MEREDITH
COLLEGE

THE JOHN E. WEEMS GRADUATE SCHOOL
TEACHER TUITION ASSISTANCE

One way that Meredith College demonstrates its commitment to supporting North Carolina schools and teachers is by offering tuition assistance for the Master of Education Program. Working teachers can receive $200 credit for each three-credit hour course they are enrolled in at Meredith College.

To qualify, you must:

1. Be a degree candidate in the Master of Education Program. Students enrolled for licensure-only are not eligible.

2. Be under contract in a public or private North Carolina school, on the elementary, middle, or secondary level.

3. Provide verification of employment by the principal of your school.

Name: _____
Student ID: _____ is currently employed or will be employed at_____ during _____ (School) (Dates of Contract)

_____ _____
Date Signature of Principal

Please Note:
For fall and spring semesters, one-half of the total tuition is due at registration; the grant will be credited in the mid-semester billing. For summer, the total tuition is due at registration; if you qualify for the assistance, you may deduct the correct amount when you pay. This verification is valid for fall, spring, and summer semesters and must be renewed each fall semester you are enrolled.
