

DANCE

What can I do with this degree?

AREAS	EMPLOYERS	STRATEGIES
Movement Notators	Dance Companies Dance Libraries College and University dance departments	Need basic technical dance training, but need not be performers. Need a broad general education and notation courses from a college or university.
Reconstructors	Dance Companies	Need extensive training in the system of notation. People in this position usually have been professional performers. Also need the ability to direct people.
Performing	Dance Companies	Whatever area of dance you are in make sure you have had good training. You also need a strong, well proportionate body. Dancers need to be prepared for periods of unemployment.
Teaching	Private School State Schools/Colleges Dance Companies	Need to be able to choreograph dances for their pupils in some jobs. Also need to know the history of dance and the anatomy, physiology and dance notation.
Choreography	Theatre Television Video	Need to be creative and skilled in various types of dance. It is essential to develop your skills through experience
Journalism	Newspapers Magazines	Obtain a degree from a college or university in English or another Humanity area. A secondary degree in dance with experience is necessary.
Visual Design	Dance Companies Theatre	Designing the costumes and lighting for performances is a highly specialized occupation. Those working with lighting need theatre experience, and those working with costume design need a formal education in design