Signature Perspective Learning Outcomes

U.S. Perspectives Courses
Upon completion of a U.S. Perspectives course:

- Students will identify aspects of United States society or experience in terms of culture, institutions, or diversity, and
- Students will analyze or interpret the complexities of U.S. experience(s) through relevant disciplinary methods.

Achievement of these outcomes will be assessed through written work, presentation, or artistic production.

Global Perspectives Courses
Upon completion of a Global Perspectives course:

- Students will analyze at least one global issue with current implications using a variety of perspectives and methods.
- Students will compare how different world cultures respond to at least one global issue.

Achievement of these outcomes will be assessed through written work, presentation, or artistic production.

Ethical Perspectives Courses
Upon completion of an Ethical Perspectives course:

- Students will demonstrate knowledge of the broader ethical theories, principles, and codes of conduct that inform and guide decision making in the field of study.
- Students will analyze the ethical dimensions of a social issue or a public policy through relevant disciplinary methods.

Achievement of these outcomes will be assessed through written work, presentation, or artistic production.