

Goals and Learning Outcomes: Meredith College General Education Program

		An understanding of self, others, and the world through					The ability to analyze, evaluate, and discover solutions through			Effective communication through			Recognition of ethical and responsible behavior in society, the global community, and the natural world through			An understanding of the complex nature of knowledge through
Courses	Student Learning Outcomes	knowledge of diverse historical events, literatures, and religious traditions	knowledge and use of social and behavioral sciences	knowledge and application of natural and mathematical sciences	creative expression and appreciation for the arts	participation in physical activity and lifelong wellness behaviors	critical reading and thinking skills	quantitative skills	creative and collaborative problem-solving skills	skill in writing for a variety of purposes	facility in oral expression	competence in a foreign language	an understanding of human cultural diversity	the ability to reason and act ethically	knowledge of current global problems	investigation of issues from more than one disciplinary perspective	fluency with technology and information literacy	a desire to engage in lifelong learning
U.S. Persp*		X	X	X	X	X							X
Glbl Persp*		X	X	X	X	X							X		X	X		X
Ethc Persp*		X	X	X	X	X								X
ENG 111							X		X								X
ENG 200							X		X						X	X
FL requir										X	X	X						X
Aesth & Art					X					X		X					X
Intro REL		X					X					X			X
Intro HIS		X					X					X
LIT		X					X		X
Cultural		X			X							X
SBS			X				X	X				X
MAT				X				X	X								X
Lab SCI				X				X	X					X
NBS Elec				X			X	X	X
HED/ PED						X												X
WI thread							X		X
OC thread									X	X							X
IL thread															X	X	X

* U.S., GP, & EP courses may fulfill knowledge outcomes in any one or more of the knowledge areas (outcomes 1-5).