

PRISM Measures to Student Learning Outcomes Matrix

Assessment Measures

Outcomes: As a result of the PRISM program, students at Meredith will:	VALUE Rubrics (direct)	WGCTA (direct)	Reflection Products (direct)	Institutional Scales (direct and indirect)	Interviews and Focus Groups (direct and indirect)	Program Assessments (direct and indirect)	NSSE and BCSSE (indirect)	Self Assessments (indirect)	Local Surveys (indirect)
Outcome 1: Apply skills of reason, critique and creative thought	X	X	X		X	X	X	X	X
Outcome 2: Utilize and communicate critical thinking skills through reading, writing, and speaking.	X					X	X	X	X
Outcome 3: Integrate and evaluate knowledge from a variety of sources and disciplines	X				X	X	X	X	X
Outcome 4: Raise important questions and formulate solutions to complex problems	X		X		X	X	X	X	X
Outcome 5: Develop intellectual curiosity by thinking independently and being active in the learning process				X	X			X	X
Outcome 6: Practice metacognition by analyzing, assessing, and reconstructing their ways of thinking			X	X	X			X	X
Outcome 7: Exercise open-mindedness to new ideas or ways of thinking				X	X		X	X	X