

Location of Recycling Bins in the Dorms

Compiled by Carrie Stinchcomb ('12), Sustainability Intern

Hielman:

- Every room should have little blue recycling bins, and if they don't then there are new ones ready to be distributed in the first floor parlor
- In every parlor is little green baskets for recycling ink cartridges
- 1st and 3rd floors have a big bin for recycling in the parlor
- Outside bins are for plastics and aluminum

Barefoot:

- Every room should have little blue recycling bins, and if they don't there are new ones ready to be distributed in the first floor parlor
- In every parlor is little green baskets for recycling ink cartridges
- Every parlor has big bins for recycling
- Outside bins are for aluminum and plastic

Poteat:

- Every room should have little blue recycling bins, and if they don't then there are new ones ready to be distributed in the first floor parlor
- In every parlor is little green baskets for recycling ink cartridges
- Big recycling bins in parlors for recycling except on the 1st floor
- Outside bins for paper, cans, and plastic

Brewer:

- Every room should have little blue recycling bins, and if they don't there are new ones ready to be distributed in the first floor parlor
- In every parlor is little green baskets for recycling ink cartridges
- Big bins in parlors for recycling except for 4th floor
- Outside bins are for paper, plastic, and cans

Faircloth:

- Every room should have little blue recycling bins, and if they don't then there are new ones ready to be distributed in the first floor parlor
- In every parlor is little green baskets for recycling ink cartridges
- Outside bins are for aluminum, plastics, office paper, and glass

Stringfield:

- Every room should have little blue recycling bins, and if they don't there are new ones ready to be distributed in the first floor parlor
- In every parlor is little green baskets for recycling ink cartridges

Vann:

- Every room should have little blue recycling bins, and if they don't there are new ones ready to be distributed in the first floor parlor
- In every parlor is little green baskets for recycling ink cartridges
- In the 4th floor parlor there are bins for paper, plastic, and cans
- Outside bins are for plastic, cans, and aluminum