

Information for Students Seeking Re-Admission to Meredith College

All students applying for re-admission must submit an application with the Office of Admissions. Return your completed application by mail, fax or email to:

Office of Admissions

3800 Hillsborough Street
Raleigh, NC 27607-5298

FAX (919) 760-2348
admissions@meredith.edu

A complete application file includes:

- Completed and signed application
- $40 non-refundable application fee or acceptable fee waiver
- A 250 word essay (The topic of the essay is the student's choice, however if a student has not attended another institution during her absence, she needs to include in the essay an explanation of her activities during her time away from Meredith College.)
- If other colleges or universities were attended since Meredith College, an official transcript from each institution must be submitted
- College Official Recommendation form, completed and signed by most recent institution attended since Meredith College (if applicable)

Students who have been on an approved leave of absence or students who have been visiting another institution with approval from Meredith College are not required to submit an application for re-admission. Please contact the Registrar with questions about this process.

Re-Admission is NOT guaranteed. In addition to the application materials required from the student, the Office of Admissions will obtain other credentials and recommendations from a variety of campus constituencies. The student's previous academic and personal records will also be considered.

If adequate health information is not on file at the college, a student accepted for re-admission is required to submit the necessary medical records.

Special Conditions for Re-Admission:

- A student who was initially admitted conditionally may apply for re-admission. All original conditions will apply, if accepted for re-admission. There are limitations on earned credit associated with re-admission for conditionally admitted students. Please consult a Transfer Admissions Counselor for further information.

The Honor System

The Honor System is a long-standing tradition and a basis for all life at Meredith College. Based upon the principles of integrity, fulfillment of community obligations and responsibility to others, the purpose of the Honor System is to maintain an atmosphere of trust and honor throughout the Meredith community. The willingness of each student to accept full responsibility for her actions and to abide by the standards set by her peers is imperative to a community of mutual trust. Every student who attends Meredith must commit herself to abide by and uphold Meredith's Honor Code and system of self-government through signing the Honor Pledge during orientation. When you sign your application to Meredith College, you indicate that you are aware of the importance of the Honor System and, if enrolled, will be responsible for ensuring that the Honor System is at all times the standard for individual and community behavior.
