Alice in Wonderland
Once in every college generation since 1924, the faculty and staff perform Lewis Carroll’s Alice in Wonderland for the students. Students are hard-pressed to identify their elaborately costumed instructors who act out this literary fantasy. The next performances are scheduled for January of 2020 and are open to students only.

Awards Presentations
Each year as the spring semester comes to a close, Meredith celebrates the achievements of its outstanding students at an annual Academic and Leadership Awards program. College-wide academic and leadership awards are presented.

In addition, many departments and schools host awards ceremonies scheduled during the second semester. A number of those events, as well as the Undergraduate Research Conference, are held on a day of Celebrating Student Achievement, a tradition begun in 2003 through the cooperation of the Divisions of Academic and College Programs.

Bathtub Ring
Three members of the Class of 1970—Betty King, Ayn Sullivan, and Peggy Timmerman—founded The Bathtub Ring singing group in the spring of 1968 and first performed for Phi Luau during Rush Week. Their blend of rebellion against and honoring of Meredith traditions has made The Bathtub Ring a perennial favorite at Cornhuskin’ and other campus events. Membership is by audition, and selections are made by The Bathtub Ring from students who are members of even-year classes.

Big Sister-Little Sister Classes
The Big Sister-Little Sister program forms mentoring relationships that help students adjust to college life. New students may opt to participate in the program and be assigned a big sister until the upper class student graduates. Throughout the year, sister classes participate in events such as ice cream socials, pizza parties and class serenades. The culmination of the two classes’ years together is Class Day on which the members of the sophomore class honor their big sister class. (See also Odd and Even Classes and Class Day Activities).
Class Colors
The colors of all odd classes are blue and white until their junior year when they adopt rainbow colors. Even class colors are green and white. Leap year classes’ colors are purple and gold.

Class Day Activities
Sophomores honor the members of the senior class (the Big Sister class), and the seniors highlight their college years on the day before graduation. The little sisters spend the morning constructing two 100-foot daisy chains to be used for the afternoon’s Class Day exercises. The white-clad sophomores hold two daisy chains and sing as their sister class walks past the chains. Class historians recall and depict key events of the graduating class’ four years at Meredith. The sophomore and alumnae sister classes sing traditional songs to the seniors. At the conclusion of Class Day, the chains form the class numerals of the graduating class, and the seniors form a circle and celebrate with their classmates.

Class Events and Activities
Each class participates in a variety of annual events. Senior events include a senior picnic, a celebration night of the days remaining until graduation based on the class’ graduation year, a senior family night, and baccalaureate. Seniors also have the privilege of painting the tunnel below Wade Avenue each year. In the fall, the junior class sponsors a Ring Dinner. At the dinner, juniors celebrate the wearing of their class rings. The sophomores sponsor a Guardian Angel Dance in the fall and Tea for Two in the Spring as well as Charming Evening. Freshmen participate in the Fire and Water Dinner in April.

Class Ring
The Meredith Class Ring was designed in 1953 by a committee including students Jean Dula Fletcher, Ann Lovell, and Mary Jon Gerald Roach. The ring is an oval onyx ring surrounded by silver or gold with the Meredith seal engraved on the onyx and oak leaves impressed on the band. As an undergraduate, the student wears the ring on her finger with the seal pointing toward her. At graduation she turns the ring around so that the seal faces the world. Degree-seeking undergraduate students who have completed 60 hours of coursework (typically by the first semester of the junior year) are eligible to purchase the ring. Sales are coordinated by the Meredith College Alumnae Office.

College Colors
The Meredith College official colors are maroon and white.

College Flower
The Meredith College official flower is the iris. Loleta Kenan Powell, ’41, developed the Meredith Hues iris planted around the Elizabeth Triplett Beam Fountain Plaza, near the Cate Center, near the Alumnae House, and at other locations around campus.

Cornhuskin’
In the fall, each class presents for competition a series of productions including skits, songs, and dances, all of which are related thematically. The four classes are judged on these performances as well as other related activities such as participation in the Cornhuskin’ service project. The Meredith Pride Spirit Stick is given by MRA to the most spirited class. Additional activities scheduled throughout the week include a theme reveal, “bond” fire, raids, a parade, and more! Cornhuskin’ is sponsored by the Meredith Recreation Association and usually occurs during the first week in November. Cornhuskin’ rules are available in the Office of Student Leadership and Service.
Crook Hunt
Each spring the seniors hide a wooden crook from the juniors. The juniors, aided by enigmatic clues, spend a week searching the campus for this stick and very rarely find it. If the crook is found, it is brought into Class Day with a black ribbon. If it is not found, the crook is brought into Class Day with a ribbon of the Senior Class colors. Crook Hunt rules are available in the Office of Student Leadership and Service. The event was begun in 1906 when the crook was presented by an instructor to the seniors. This elaborate hide-and-seek has been staged annually since it was revived in 1929.

Founders’ Day
Each year, a day is set aside for Meredith to honor its founding on February 27, 1891. Founders’ Day often is marked by a convocation address and remembrance of Thomas Meredith, Baptist leader and advocate for women’s education. The College’s name was changed in 1910 from Baptist University for Women (Baptist Female University, 1891–1905) to honor Thomas Meredith’s work in the founding of the College.

Meredith Mascot
During the fall semester of 2007, the College launched the Avenging Angels as the official Meredith College mascot.

The Oddballs
The Oddballs is a spirit group of four very enthusiastic students in an odd class. To be an Oddball, a student must be a member of an odd class and audition at the end of her sophomore year. Upon being selected as an Oddball member, a student will be inducted into Oddball status at the following Class Day, held the day before graduation. The Oddballs entertain by doing cheers and amusing stunts at Cornhuskin’ and a number of special events.

Odd and Even Classes
The four classes are divided into odd-numbered and even-numbered years. “Them Bones” is the song of the odd-numbered years and “Hail to the Even Spirit” is the song of the even-numbered years. On Class Day, members of the odd classes wear black gloves on their left hands and give their little sisters wish bone charms to wish them luck. The even classes give their little sisters bags of sticks and stones “to protect them from the Odd Spirit’s bone.”

Spring Formal Dance
The freshman, sophomore and junior classes sponsor a formal dance in the spring in honor of the senior class. Seniors attend the dance free of charge. All students are welcome.

Stunt
The Meredith Recreation Association (MRA) has sponsored this event of class rivalry since 1915, its form changing from original plays to a variety of recreational competitions. Stunt promotes class unity through class competition, creativity and fun. Points are awarded for each event and are used in determining the overall winner of Stunt. Recent events have included bat spin, tug of war, lip sync, limbo, and a three-legged race. The event usually occurs in the spring semester. Rules of Stunt are available in the Office of Student Leadership and Service.
White Iris Ball
The Meredith Activities Board (MAB) sponsors the White Iris Ball, a semi-formal dance held off campus each fall for all students.
