TRADITIONS AND STUDENT LIFE AT MEREDITH COLLEGE

As a new student, below are a few important things to know about traditions and student life at Meredith. For more information and to enroll in the programs below, visit the Student Leadership and Service MyMeredith page.

Class Affiliate Groups & Email Lists – Meredith students affiliate with a class based on their anticipated graduation year. Campus and class-wide announcements are distributed through the class-wide email listserv. Incoming Meredith students should subscribe to their class listserv in order to receive these important messages.

Big Sister Little Sister Program – The Big Sister Little Sister Program encourages campus unity and a successful transition for incoming students through peer mentoring. Through the program, Little Sister students (freshmen and sophomores) are paired with Big Sister students (juniors and seniors) and pairs are encouraged to attend socials and campus traditions together. To participate, students must enroll in the program.

MC Connect & Student Activities Calendars – Browse ways to get involved on campus with MC Connect. Using MC Connect students can search and join student organizations as well as view the student activities calendar to learn about upcoming events at Meredith. Visit MC Connect online at Meredith.presence.io

Meredith Traditions – Traditions are the heart of Meredith’s rich student life! Get involved by participating in Meredith’s traditions and annual events.

Class Ring Information – The Meredith Class Ring is one of Meredith’s most well-known traditions. Meredith’s onyx ring design is unique to the College and unites students and alumnae as one sisterhood. Ring orders should be placed through the Office of Alumnae Relations.

Student Organizations – Meredith offers a variety of opportunities to get involved with over 100 clubs and organizations. Join one of the campus clubs and organizations available at Meredith! To view all club offerings, club meeting times, and to join a club, visit MC Connect at Meredith.presence.io

Office of Student Leadership and Service - For more information about student life at Meredith, follow the Office of Student Leadership and Service on social media (@MeredithSLS) or stop by 202 Cate Center.
