

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN NUTRITION

APPLICANT ESSAY QUESTIONS

Dietetic (DPD) Track:

Please answer each of the following questions if applying to MS/DPD track. A separate sheet should be used.

1. Describe your career aspirations. What prompted you to seek a Meredith Masters of Science in Nutrition degree with a Dietetics Concentration at this time? How do you expect this degree to help you attain your career goals? (250 words or less)
2. One component of this program involves professional development and leadership in the field of Nutrition. What professional knowledge and skills do you value and how do you think these skills will increase your success and learning as a graduate student in this competitive field? (250 words or less)
3. (Optional) Please address any other matters that might help the Admissions Committee in considering your application. (250 words or less)

Food and Nutrition Studies Track:

Please answer each of the following questions if applying to the MS/Food & Nutrition studies track. A separate sheet should be used.

1. Describe your career aspirations. What prompted you to seek a Meredith Masters of Science in Nutrition with a Food and Nutrition Studies Concentration at this time? How do you expect this degree to help you attain your career goals? (250 words or less)
2. Describe some of your ambitions for connecting and giving back to the community in regard to food and nutrition?
3. (Optional) Address any other matters that might help the Admissions Committee in considering you as a professional and your application. (250 words or less)