

Friday, September 17, 2021

Dear Meredith Community Member,

Meredith College recently announced a COVID-19 vaccination requirement for students and employees that will go into effect at the start of the spring 2022 semester.

In this video, President Jo Allen provides detailed information about the reasons for this decision, which was made to protect the health and safety of Meredith's entire community.

Watch President Allen's message

Find additional information about the COVID-19 vaccination requirement at meredith.edu/staying-strong/vaccine-information.